SONSET FLOWERS

Sonset Flowers on Clayton Road opened in January of this year and has already become the popular choice for unique flower arrangements. Owned and operated by Clayton resident, Donna Richey, Sonset Flowers has flower arrangements for every holiday and special occasion. They are also wire specialists. Donna has made her shop special, with gifts, candies and boutique items.

Donna personally serves the family who has lost a loved one, making sure every detail is attended to. "At that time in their life, the last thing they need is to have to worry about the flowers," Donna says.

Sonset Flowers' will be in their temporary location at 5356 Clayton Road, just across the parking lot from their store in the old Jory's location, which was damaged by fire earlier this year. To order flowers, call 685-8200.

THE ROYAL ROOSTER

Clayton resident Sara Skow invites you to wake up with The Royal Rooster on your mind and prepare for a unique shopping experience in downtown Clayton. This charming little boutique nestled in behind Cup O Jo's Coffee at 1030 Diablo Street features unique gifts and French country accents. You'll find candles, soaps, art work, small furniture, jewelry, occasional tables, bakers racks and great stocking stuffers at this intimate shop designed for the sophisticated shopper. Sara has designed her boutique to be family-friendly where children are invited to shop with mom or dad or play in Cup O Jo's playroom. Stop by and say hello to Sara or call her at (925) 672-2025.

SORELLE

It's high fashion in the 'burbs at Sorelle in the Clayton Valley

Center. This elegant little boutique is chock full of the top lines and those 'must have' items. According to Proprietress Heather Carter, denim is hot right now and Sorelle carries its share – from shorts and jeans to vest and jackets. You'll also find the most luxurious silk and cashmere for the perfect holiday gift.

Sorelle also features Tylie Malibu handbags and belts, Havaina flip flops, Michael Star and Rebecca Beeson tees and collections from Joie, Generra, Velvet and Burning Torch. Alterations are free and new lines come in weekly.

Customers are excited about the parking availability at Sorelle in the Clayton Valley Shopping Center. That, and the fact that they don't have to drive to Walnut Creek to find the trendiest boutique fashions has had the customers waiting in line.

"There's something here for everyone," Heather explains. "Our styles are generally for customers from 25 to 45, but recently, I had a 60-year-old woman come in and purchase three pairs of jeans."

For more information on Sorelle's fashion lines,, call 672-3500.

THE UPS STORE

As you drive down Clayton Road, make sure you find time to turn into the Vineyard Shopping Center. Parking is a breeze and there's a variety of stores to meet all of your needs. Bring your packages and notary documents to The UPS Store and let owner Tricia Tamura help you with your "to do" list. The store is spacious and the staff is friendly with a lot of expertise to help you get your gifts delivered on time, safe and sound. While you're at The UPS store you have access to a new color copier, cards, postal materials, fax machines and more. Call Tricia at 689-6245 if you have any questions.

VINTAGE

Santiago Martinez, Joyce Novicky Martinez and Roxanne Pardi will be familiar to many. All three are long time Clayton residents and appear frequently at events around town.

This talented trio has a Christmas CD that will make the perfect hostess gift, stocking stuffer or a treat for yourself after a day of Christmas shopping. "A Time for Christmas" includes the lovely original carol, "Angel of God."

Vintage is available to entertain at your holiday party with music from Oldies to Do-Wop; from Broadway to jazz that will please every age.
